NEWS RELEASE SUMMARY - January 22, 2008

United States Attorney Karen P. Hewitt announced that Martin Leonard Dolamore was sentenced today in San Diego federal court by the Honorable Marilyn L. Huff to serve 168 months in custody based upon his guilty plea to an indictment charging him with receipt of child pornography. Judge Huff also ordered that Dolamore serve a five-year term of supervised release following his release from prison and required Dolamore to register as a sex offender. Dolamore, a former dispatcher for a limousine company, pled guilty on September 18, 2007.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Alessandra P. Serano, who prosecuted the case, Dolamore admitted that he knowingly received more than 3,000 images of minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct. During the sentencing hearing, the Court specifically noted that the defendant possessed vile and graphic sexual images of victimized minors.

United States Attorney Hewitt commended the agents from Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, for their work investigating this case.

This case is being brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims.
